MAS Property Expands to Madrid After Eight Successful Years in Marbella

Madrid, Spain – September 17, 2024 – MAS Property, one of Marbella's leading real estate agencies specialising in luxury properties, is proud to announce the opening of its newest office in Madrid. Following eight years of continued success and growth in the Marbella market, this expansion marks a significant milestone for the company as it broadens its reach to serve the capital city.

The new Madrid office is strategically located in the heart of the city, offering a full range of real estate services, including property sales, rentals, and investment opportunities. MAS Property is renowned for its bespoke approach to client services, delivering personalised solutions to meet the diverse needs of both local and international clients. The move to Madrid is in response to increasing demand for high-end real estate in the city, and the company's desire to offer its expert services to a broader clientele.

"We are thrilled to bring our expertise and passion for real estate to Madrid," said Margareta Stjernstrom, CEO of MAS Property. "After eight successful years in Marbella, it felt like the perfect time to expand into the capital. Madrid's dynamic property market and international appeal align perfectly with our growth strategy, and we look forward to continuing to provide exceptional service to our clients in this exciting new location."

Since its inception, MAS Property has built a reputation for excellence in the luxury real estate market. The company's team of highly skilled professionals provides unparalleled market knowledge and a client-centric approach that ensures each transaction is handled with care, discretion, and efficiency.

The opening of the Madrid office marks the beginning of the next phase of growth for MAS Property, as the company continues to evolve to meet the demands of Spain's competitive real estate market. With a commitment to excellence and a proven track record of success, MAS Property is poised to make a significant impact in Madrid.

The new office will officially open its doors to the public on 1st December 2024, and MAS Property invites clients, partners, and members of the media to visit and explore the full range of services available.
